Kirsty Gray has over 15 years research experience and has her foot in many genealogical doors around the world.

Her first involvement in family history came at the tender age of seven years with her maternal grandfather's tree in hand. Obsessed with her great-grandmother's maiden name of Sillifant, Kirsty began a surname study on the name in 1999, publishing tri-annual journals on the surname for ten years.

Kirsty took up genealogy professionally while training to be a teacher in 2002. Running Family Wise Limited, Kirsty has conducted research for private individuals, solicitors, academics and companies worldwide.

services you need

WHAT WE DO

Here at Family Wise, we offer several different services to help clarify the situation for an inheritance, whether you have all the information at your fingertips, or just a name and a date to go on. Here are our main services, but if you feel that your needs aren't covered below, contact us for a bespoke quote.

DO YOU NEED PROFESSIONAL EXPERTISE TO VERIFY
A FAMILY TREE?

• Basic Checks

- o Free basic verification
- o Do you need to make sure that Mr and Mrs Smith only had the two children? Is Ms Jones still at the address you hold for her from two decades ago?
- o We offer a rapid turnaround, free service to verify small pieces of information such as this you have - no catches, no hidden costs, just fast, free, reliable information, when you need it.

• Incomplete information

- o If you hold nearly everything you need, but there is a missing line of the family, or an important document can't be found, Family Wise can help.
- o Find what you need and point you in the right direction, or even acquire that missing certificate or crucial will. For individual items of research such as this, we charge an hourly rate of £50 + VAT.

DOCUMENT AGENT

We offer a document location service to solicitors and legal professions when they need to secure birth, marriage and/or death certificates or other relevant genealogical documentation to further their works.

• Working from scratch

- o We can provide a full family tree and contact details for the beneficiaries working from even the smallest amounts of information.
- o As the sizes of families and the amount of work required can vary wildly, we provide a bespoke, no-obligation quote on an hourly rate for constructing a full family tree, so get in touch with the information you hold, and we can show you what we can do.
