

FWL Role Blog Questions

What were you doing before you applied for your job at FWL?

How did you find the job, what was the job role, and what did the application process involve?

What was your initial experience like when you got the job?

What does a day in your role involve?

What challenges do you face in the role?

What rewarding moments have you had in the role?

Where do you hope for your role to take you?

Any closing words?

